FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The San Francisco Democratic Convention held Wednesday was the largest and most influential ever held in the State. The resolutions for hard money were adopted with great unanimity. Two-thirds of those present favored the nomination of Gov. Tilden for President, but there was no formal expression of this preference.

A telegram from Constantinople says that in the attempt to recruit Nensis, Mukhtar was compelled to retreat, after reaching Prejeka.

Mrs. David Dudley Field died at Baltimore on Wednesday.

A Gravohov special says that the insurgents drove Mukhtar Northward and overtook him. A fresh engagement was fought.

A Paris correspondent says that the Bourse was convulsed at the close yesterday by the news that 7,000 Montenegrans had joined the Insurgents.

A telegram from London dated yesterday announces the death of Lord Lyttelton. He was fifty-nine years of age.

Robert Fernal has been appointed Judge of the new Criminal Court, at San Francisco.

Drs. Toland and Shorb testify that Chinese immigration is demoralizing to society.

The troubles on the Rio Grande still continue.

Dom Pedro arrived at Omaha this morning and took a view of the town.

The Nebraska Democratic State Convention has adopted a hard money platform and elected Dr. G. L. Miller, Dr. A. Beard, G. B. Schofield, Casper Tolman and Chas Mc Donald to the St. Louis Convention on.

THE last session of the Legislature passed 1,443 bills 691 of which were presented to the Governor, and of these 585 received his signature.

THE little unpleasantness in which President GRANT appears to be just now involved is detailed in another column, and will be found interesting reading.

THE Evening Republican has enlarged to the size of the Daily HERALD and presents a very neat appearance. The editor announces that the price of the paper will remain at fifteen cents per week. The Republican is by far the cheapest and best evening paper published in this city.

IT is stated that 135 votes sold in Woonsocket, R. I., at the recent election for an aggregate of $2,000. If voters are worth this sum in Rhode Island what are they worth in a State where the two parties are nearly even in strength?

Of those who have read the Act creating a Board of Public Works in this city we have not heard of a single tax payer that objects to the law. The objection, so far as we can learn, comes from those whose names do not appear on the tax roll and who never of their own free will and accord contributed a single dollar to the funds of the city. The universal verdict is that however defective the law may be and however imperfectly it may be administered it cannot but be an improvement on the old system of red tape circumlocution and a great deal of money for a very little service. But the law is not defective and there is no danger of it being carelessly administered. It will not be long before the few opponents it now has will be numbered among its warmest supporters.

WITH one exception the street car lines of San Francisco have increased the fare from five to six and a quarter cents. Of course much dissatisfaction follows. Five cents per fare is enough and the people have it within their power to compel the street car companies to reduce the rate to that figure. The process is simple and efficient—walk. The profits of street car companies is on short travel. Few people ride from end to end of the line, and a large proportion do not travel half that distance. Let those who wish to go but three or four blocks walk and the companies will soon find their receipts falling off so rapidly that they will be glad to return to the old rate of five cents. Those who travel a long distance will be compelled to ride but the number is proportionably small and the profit on their fare very light. Walk and the increased fare will neither deplete your purse nor fill that of the street car company.

Silver.

NEW YORK, April 20th.—The Sub-Treasury has been besieged all day by applicants for silver for the redemption of currency. Four clerks were employed in paying out silver. About $10,000 in silver was paid out. The Comptroller of Currency to-day sent his permission for the Bank of the State of New York to resume business.

Vice Consul and Others.

WASHINGTON, April 20th.—The President has recognized Frederick Lewis as Vice Consul of Her Britannic Majesty at Pensacola, and A. S. La Sure Consul General of Hayti at New York.

Ex U. S. Commissioner of the general land office, Willis Drummond, and ex Chief Clerk W. W. Curtis have been arrested here by the U. S. Marshal of the U. S. Court.

Probably a Canard.

WASHINGTON, April 20th.—It is rumored that ex-Attorney General Williams has given evidence implicating President Grant in the disbursement of Secret Service money. The report is generally disbelieved here.

IN THE TOILS.

PRESIDENT GRANT USING THE PUBLIC FUNDS FOR ELECTION PURPOSES.

WILLIAMS MAKES A CLEAN BREAST OF IT.

NEW YORK, April 20th.—The World's Washington correspondent publishes the following: Important and trustworthy evidence directly implicating the President of the United States in the illegal and corrupt use of the public money was taken to-day before the Committee on the Department of Justice, and from no less a person than an ex-member of his Cabinet, ex-Attorney General George H. Williams, who, in fact, shields his illegal conduct behind a written order of the President. In it is said it involves the payment out of the secret service fund of an order of Grant's for $22,000 to aid in carrying the election in the city of New York in the years 1871-72-73. All of this money was paid to the notorious John J. Davenport, who was chief Supervisor under the enforcement act, but who does not receipt for it in a single instance as an officer of the government, but simply as John J. Davenport. In one case he merely gives his own due bill for the payments made to him in an official capacity. All are duly receipted and audited in the Treasury, and in correct form and legal account. This corruption fund for political purposes was gobbled from the secret service fund. Attorney General Williams says he was first called upon to pay Davenport $6,000 in 1871. He hesitated to use the public money in that way, and called upon the President, who, after a brief conversation, ordered its payment by written order. In the Fall of 1872, when the last presidential election was held, $20,000 was ordered to be paid to Davenport—the Attorney General testifying that, in each instance, he received the verbal order of the President before turning over the money. Last Fall $6,000 more were paid, when Williams half remonstrated against it. The largest payment was for the election in 1872, when Grant ran against Greeley. The President said Davenport was engaged in a great work up there.

HE MUST HAVE THE MONEY.

When pressed by the committee as to the corrupt and illegal use of this fund, Attorney General Williams evaded and dodged, and seemed reluctant to tell, though not so willing, after all, to protect the President. This corruption fund was paid on the order of the President to Whately, and by letter to Davenport. Whately produced to-day to the committee Davenport's voucher for every cent, and Williams corroborated him in that and other respects.

The Herald's Washington special says that astounding developments were made to-day by testimony given by Mr. Grant. That story confirms the charges made in New York in 1872, that the administration had interferred with the corruption in the elections of that year.

HERE FOLLOWS THE EVIDENCE,

And a story substantially like that just sent to the World. The Herald's Washington special adds that the President will probably be subpoenaed before the committee to answer these questions for himself. During the course of the examination of Williams, he was asked what conversation passed between himself and the President when the latter ordered the first payment of money to Davenport, the object of the question being to draw from the witness that he had a law officer of the government advised the President that such payment of money was illegal; but the witness answered that he could not recollect especially what the conversation was. When the question was put in a more leading way—almost directly, in fact—he still failed to recollect what had been said. The question whether the Committee shall call the President before them or not, and in what manner they will question him, will probably be discussed to-morrow. Presidents Jefferson and Lincoln appeared before Committees of Congress to testify; and Grant, it is believed, desires to appear, and will come as soon as he is summoned. On the Black Friday investigation the Committee sent him a copy of the testimony, and requested him to send in such answer as he chose to make. It is said there has been uneasiness in administration circles for some days about the coming and embarrassing developments.

THE COMMITTEE

Has only begun the investigation of what has been done at different times with the Secret Service Fund in the Department of Justice. They are said to be on the track of other expenditures not different in kind from those made in New York, but in the aggregate very largely exceeding in amount. There are fifteen or twenty receipts to Whately from Davenport, amounting to $40,000, and letters from the Attorney General and Davenport, Williams gave directions to Whately as to the disposition of the money, which were to give it to Davenport. Some of the documents are already in the hands of the Committee, and Whately supposed they were stolen from his office. The money was paid in sums varying from $10,000 to $50,000 each time. Williams says he was ordered to have it paid to Davenport by the President. Twenty thousand dollars of this money was paid to Davenport before the election in 1872. The witness did not intend to give the facts, but they were forced out of him, and when he saw that he had the letters, he gave them.

The World says editorially: "The most melancholy news which it has ever fallen to our lot to lay before the public, hardly excepting the assassination of Lincoln, is that which we publish this morning, reciting the political and moral suicide of the use of the Secret Service money for his party's benefit and his own re-election. His agent was the notorious John J. Davenport, and the money was spent in defrauding the New York City Democracy out of their rights at the ballot-box. The proofs exist—not his receipts as an officer of the House—but his conduct was agitated and the management, and a committee was appointed to get stock enough to oust the party now in control if the thing could be accomplished.

Sharps are trying the old dodge of putting lead pipe in imitation of twenty dollar rolls. One broker was victimized yesterday to a small amount. The imitation rolls are like the genuine and the exact weight. The only way to detect them is to unroll the package.

A preliminary meeting for the organization of the Pacific Coast cigar makers association was held last evening. The question of admitting the manufacturers and dealers in cigars as well as journeymen was agitated and it was finally decided to admit every one interested in the business, subject to a vote of the body.

The best free long staple Southern wool commands 18 cents, but such lots are scarce. Light free wools of six and eight months growth are quotable at 16 cents, while heavy lots of that kind will not bring over 12@14 cents. The range for burly wools is from 10 to 15 cents as to quality. At the present time only strictly choice lots are in demand, other kinds being hard to sell, and within the past week prices have shelled off.

The Herald says, editorially: "Scare a day has passed in these times of investigation but some reputation honored in the sight of the nation has fallen down in loathsome ashes at the merest touch. Since Belknap's infamy burst upon the country, and indeed, long before, the vultures of corruption have been seen hovering and circling close about the President, yet a large majority have charitably hoped and believed that, near at the time of evil came to him, he at least might come out unsmirched. It is to be feared this hope will prove fallacious."

THE REVELATIONS MADE

before the Committee of the House, investigating the expenditures in the Department of Justice, show the President to have been the author of a raid upon the Treasury whose unwarrantable shamelessness even the witness has not the courage to defend. This is a great blow to the President. As to Williams and Davenport, they have no characters to lose that they would be likely to grieve over, or any one else to mourn but to the President, who surely counts on a respected memory. The Agents were at work this afternoon counting about $1,000,000 in revenue stamps.

Another of the girls in the Valencia street school was suspended yesterday for complicity in the circulation of immoral papers. This makes 13 pupils in all suspended from the school for this offence. One of the girls who ran away from school when she found that an investigation was to be had has been committed by her father to a reformatory institution for one year, the evidence showing that she had become badly demoralized. It has transpired that the offensive literature circulated was of an extremely gross character.

At the Republican primary election to-day the anti-Custom House tickets were successful. In most of the precincts a very light vote was polled.

At a meeting of the State Medical Convention to-day, the Committee on nomination of officers and the Board of Examiners under the new law presented to President Dr. Cheeseman of Butte; first Vice-President, Dr. B. D. Deane, S. F., second Vice-President, W. S. Hamlin, Yuba City; third Vice-President, Dr. Pond, Napa; fourth Vice-President, Dr. Todd of Stockton; permanent Secretary; Dr. Tyrrell of Sacramento; Treasurer, K. E. Oatman, Board of Censors, Dr. Tyrrell, Sacramento; Dr. Cushing, Oakland; Dr. Chenes, Sacramento, and Drs. Plummer and Crook of San Francisco. Next place of meeting, San Francisco. The Board of Examiners are Drs. Simpson, Gibbons, Sr., and Bates of San Francisco; Dr. Babcock, Oakland; Dr. Montgomery, Sacramento; Dr. Orme, Los Angeles, and Dr. Robinson of Colusa. The report was accepted.

James Walker, the historical painter, and Paul Frenzen leave to-morrow for Southern California to make cattle studies during rodeo time.

are on their track, watching his comings and goings, and persons who have gained undesirably prominence in connection with whisky trials and the safe burglary business are industriously spying into obscure corners of his history with the benevolent intention of proving him to have some affinity with themselves. Bristow has so far been fortunate enough not only to afford prompt and conclusive disproof of the charges against him, but he has also been able to confute the Democrats, who were carefully nursing them, had time to give them to the world. The industrious accusers of the Secretary of the Treasury are doing substantial service to the Republican party. We wish that Blaine would imitate Bristow's promptitude and frankness in disposing of the charges which are so industriously circulated in regard to him. One of these charges has been but half excused and shows a tendency to stick. It is that for which Harrison, a Government Director of the Union Pacific railroad is responsible, and about which, it is alleged, the whole story has not been told. Harrison is ready to go before the Congressional Committee with his statement, and it is to be hoped that, some way or other, his accusation will be got out and fairly met by Blaine.

SAN FRANCISCO, 20th.—A meeting of the stockholders of the Grangers' Business Association, was held yesterday for the election of directors for the ensuing year, and to receive the report of the old Board. After a very satisfactory report from the old Board they held an election for the directors which resulted as follows: D. Imman, G. P. Kellogg, Dr. Flint, R. C. Hall, J. C. Steele, T. Upton, D. Campbell, J. Lewellen, O. Hubble, N. L. Overhiser and A. Adams.

Pursuant to notice that there was a meeting of boot and shoemakers at Irish American Hall, last evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of exposing those firms who have heretofore advertised the discharge of Chinamen and substitution of white men. The President then called Mr. Einstein of the firm of Einstein Bros, who it very soon transpired had managed to pack the me-time and advertise the great Chinese employment house to which he belongs. The house he had been employing 150 Chinamen and they had discharged 50 of them and put white men in their places. In two or three weeks they would not have a Chinaman in the shop. Gallatin, a shoemaker, who had applied for work pursuant to this advertisement and was promptly refused attempted to contradict this statement, but as soon as his object was made known he was promptly ordered to sit down by the chairman, who evidently was an Einstein man. After some desultory talk, in which the Einsteins had all their own way, the meeting dwindled to nothing, pegging out without the ceremony of adjourning.
